Agreement for Commercial Support through Exhibit Display

The Oregon Association of Orthopaedic Surgeons [OAOS] is committed to presenting CME activities that promote improvements or quality in healthcare and are independent of the control of commercial interests. As part of this commitment, the OAOS has outlined in this written agreement the terms, conditions, and purposes of commercial support for its CME activities.

The Commercial Supporter and OAOS agree to abide by all requirements of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Commercial Support of Continuing Medical Education.

Independence

- This activity is for scientific and educational purposes only, and will not promote any specific proprietary business interest of the Commercial Supporter.
- OAOS is responsible for all decisions regarding the identification of educational needs, determination of educational objectives, selection and presentation of content, selection of all persons and organizations that will be in a position to control the content of the CME, selection of educational methods, and the evaluation of the activity.

Appropriate Use of Commercial Support

- OAOS will make all decisions regarding the disposition and disbursement of the funds from the Commercial Supporter.
- The Commercial Supporter will not require OAOS to accept advice or services concerning teachers, authors, or participants or other education matters, including content, as conditions of receiving this grant.
- All commercial support associated with this activity will be given with the full knowledge and approval of OAOS. No other payments shall be given to the director of the activity, planning committee members, teachers or authors, joint sponsor, or any others involved with the supported activity.

Commercial Promotion

- Product-promotion material or product-specific advertisement of any type is prohibited in or during the CME activity. Live or enduring promotional activities must be kept separate from the CME activity. Promotional materials may not be displayed or distributed in the education space immediately before, during or after a CME activity. Commercial Supporters may not engage in sales or promotional activities while in the space or place of the CME activity.
- The Commercial Supporter may not be the agent providing the CME activity to the learners.

Disclosure

- OAOS will ensure that the source of support from the Commercial Supporter is disclosed to the participants in program brochures at the time of the activity. This disclosure will not include the use of a trade name or a product-group message.

Hold Harmless Clause: Exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend and save the Oregon Association of Orthopaedic Surgeons and their employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons and property, governmental charges or fines and attorney's fees incurred by this exhibit. All personal property of the exhibitor shall be and remain at the exhibitor's sole risk. Small or easily portable objects of value should be properly secured or removed after exhibition hours and placed in safekeeping.
